The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

REFLECTION
Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King. The three readings on this feast day, presents to us beautiful images of the kind of king that Christ is. The First Reading shows the king as a Good Shepherd. The Second Reading presents to us Christ as the King of kings, while the Gospel text gives us an integral picture of a Glorious king who’s at the same time the marginalized one. In the end, we get a perplexing view of a king who's apart from the usual notion we have of a king, seated on a throne complete with golden crown and scepter. We may have the statue or picture of Christ the King in our home, in our church. What purpose does it serve? Is it a decoration or is it a commitment to the truth that our family wants to live by the word of God? Will it inspire us to live as a family where decisions meet the Father’s will, love is given freely, service is seen as normal, concern and understanding are part of daily life, and readiness to help carry somebody’s cross is common? The kingdom of God is not built on what impresses the world. The world creates kings or people who feel that they are more than the others because they have more. It leads to discrimination which is destructive of brotherhood. This may be the reason why God’s kingdom is not with us. If Jesus won the loyalty of his disciples, especially after the resurrection, and if so many Christians became martyrs, it must have been because they believed in the coming of God’s kingdom in Jesus, which is the giving of His life and the caring for people in their needs. They believed in Him, not because of all the beautiful truths He taught, but because He was the truth.

Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

For this I was born, and for this I have come into the world, to bear witness to the truth.

In its core document, Our First, Most Cherished Liberty: A Statement on Religious Liberty, the USCCB Ad Hoc Committee for Religious Liberty "urge[d] that the Solemnity of Christ the King—a feast born out of resistance to totalitarian incursions against religious liberty—be a day specifically employed by bishops and priests to preach about religious liberty, both here and abroad."

Let us pray fervently that we will help others encounter anew Christ, our King, bringing the Gospel to the margins of society, that all might bear witness to Him before others.
