

Keeping Everyone Safe

Especially During the Holiday Season

By Adrienne Tan, Gabriel Ordinado, Elijah Wilks

How to stay safe during Thanksgiving

Stay home for Thanksgiving and Christmas because the best gift you can give someone is their safety.

Avoid large family gatherings.

Smaller household size gatherings is recommended during this time.

Recommendation:
Assign one family member to give everyone food to minimize touching.

Find ways to uphold family traditions while over distance instead of in-person.

Host a virtual meet to substitute for large family gatherings and share recipes ahead of time.

How to stay safe during Christmas

Avoid going outside the house to purchase presents. Do online purchasing.

Remember the state's guidelines during Christmas.

Social Gathering:

- Keep it small.
- Avoid touching your face.
- Wear a mask.
- Have good air circulation.

Honor your traditions as best you can while still following state guidelines.

Possible games to play during the Holiday season

Household family outdoor activities

- Foot golf
- I spy
- Dance off
- Water balloon toss
- Sack race
- Egg-and-spoon race
- Noodle javelin
- Bumper ball (knock the other person down)

← Bumper ball

Online games to play with the entire family

- Online version of card games such as UNO
- Skribbl.io an online pictictionary site
- Mario Kart Tour (mobile version)
- Among Us
- Quiplash (Create questions and come up with funny answers)

Some party games we've found, but there's also others that are fun.

← Among Us character